SUBJECT REDWOOD PSYCH - Soviet Study Group of Slavic Institute, Stockholm

ACTION REQUIRED: See paragraph 6.
1. Headquarters has considered the Field's recommendations in references A and B to provide _____ to the Soviet Study Group at the University of Stockholm. During _____ recent TNY here, we had an opportunity to discuss the idea with him and it seems to be unanimously felt that the group as a whole merits some support.
2. At the same time, we have done some research on Dr. Bruno KALMINE and have found him to have a most questionable background. In addition to the information forwarded to you in reference C and D (please let us know if you no longer have them), there are other allegations of a similar nature. While there is no positive proof that KALMINE ever served the Soviets as a clandestine agent, his role in the Latvian Army in 1940 cannot be shrugged off. Neither can allegations regarding his relationship with the Germans in Latvia in 1944 or with an UNKILL agent with questionable connections in 1957 (per reference C). You will note, too, from reference D that because of this derogatory information, KALMINE was dropped as a prospective employee by PROCORD in 1956. It is interesting that on his PROCORD employment application, KALMINE failed to mention his role in 1940 as chief political officer for the Latvian Army under Soviet control, as well as other pertinent but possibly derogatory data.
3. On the plus side we have considered KALMINE's record since 1945 and positive assessment of him in his present post. Within the limits of

the operation proposed by the Field, these factors seem to outweigh KALINIS' shaky past. We are therefore prepared to undertake sponsorship of the study group at the rate of $1200 a year through [redacted] former sponsoring foundation, provided that the Field agrees and can monitor the study group's activities to ensure that our funds are being used for the purchase of Western publications on Soviet affairs and to arrange for the appearance of anti-Communist oriented speakers. The study group will be asked to report on its activities to the foundation, too. 4. As long as it is not possible to resolve the charges against KALINIS (and we cannot see how this can be done without an unlikely opportunity to interrogate and [redacted] him), there can be no clearance on him, and consequently he cannot be made witting. This limits the possible scope of the operation as originally conceived but leaves us sufficient room for the development of others of the group and, more important, for accomplishment of our principal, [redacted] objective: the influencing of prominent Swedish scholars of Soviet affairs. 5. Because of KALINIS' background and because of [redacted] relationship with liaison, we feel it best that the funding of the study group be handled directly by the foundation, that [redacted] not take part in this funding and that he take precautions where KALINIS is concerned. 6. Please reply by cable as to whether the arrangements outlined above meet with your approval. [redacted] Headquarters will immediately set up the funding mechanism through [redacted] and the foundation. [redacted] [redacted]
